for the week of 18th - 22nd

Ranger of the Week

Have fun with Mosely this weekend Seth!

A look at this week...

Reading: We will keep working with Ettabetta and the short vowel /e/ sound. Vowels are tricky, tricky, tricky, and we will focus on hearing and recognizing the difference between /e/, /a/, and /i/ in the middle of words.

Math: Now that we have worked with numbers 0-20, we will keep going to 30. We will work on writing, recognizing, and representing those numbers. We will also talk about the 3D shape of spheres, and well as continue our work with Tangrams.

Social Studies: We will read a story about Martin Luther King Jr. and talk about being peaceful. We will make a project how we can be kind to everyone, no matter who they are.

Religion: God speaks to us in quiet. Psalm 131:2. Being quiet doesn't just help us calm down and relax us, but it also helps us grow closer to God. It gives us a chance to pray, as well as listen to him.

Reminders:

- *No School on Monday 2/18-Martin Luther King Jr. Day
- *Don't forget your canned food item for Tuesday!
- *Please make sure you are practicing your child's reading part for mass with them. Parts were sent home before Christmas Break. If your child does not have a part this mass, they will at the 2nd mass we're hosting this spring.

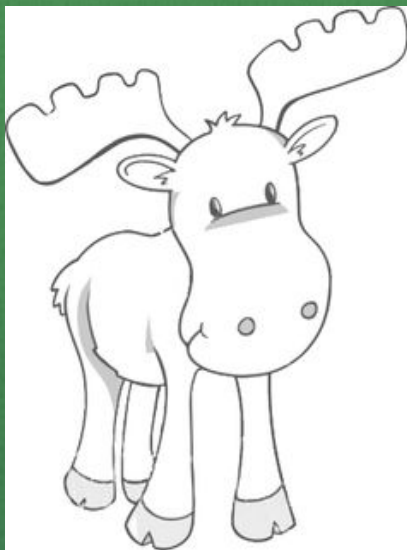

Birthdays

Aaden also has a summer birthday. We will be celebrating his half birthday on Friday 1/22.

Other News

- Save the date!!! Scholarship night is Saturday, February 27th.
- It's raffle time! Sell those raffle tickets to help earn us a new playground!
